Countywide Home Prices Flatten, Sales Plummet in October

RIVERSIDE (CNS) - Sales of existing homes in Riverside County dropped by double digits last month, while the median price of a single-family home was virtually unchanged, the California Association of Realtors said today.

IN October, home sales countywide were down 19.2% compared to September and were off 42% compared to a year ago, according to CAR.

The association's Unsold Inventory Index for October indicated that the median time a property was on the market in the county before it sold was 28 days. Statewide, it was 23 days.

"While October's sales and price results were weaker than what we've experienced in the past couple of years and could slow further in the upcoming off-season, the market bottom could be in sight," CAR President Jennifer Branchini said. "Homes are still selling relatively quickly at 23 days on the market, one in four homes is selling above list price due to limited inventory, and with median price growth remaining positive in four of the five price segments, home prices are holding up reasonably well."

The median home price countywide in October was $599,990, compared to $600,000 in September, according to CAR.

On a year-over-year level, the price was 3.4% higher; in October 2021, the median price of an existing single-family property was $580,000, data showed.

Statewide, the median price last month was $801,190, compared to $821,680 in September -- down 2.5%. In October 2021, the statewide median price was $798,440, reflecting an anemic year-over-year rise of .3%.

The median represents the point at which half of homes sell above a price, and the other half below it.

UC and Striking Union Continue Negotiations

RIVERSIDE (CNS) - A sixth consecutive day of negotiations is scheduled for Wednesday in the effort to end the strike by University of California teaching assistants, graduate student instructors, tutors and readers.

Academic workers go on strike for improved pay and working conditions at UC Davis in Davis on Nov. 14, 2022. 48,000 workers participated in the statewide strike across all UC campuses.

NEGOTIATORS for the UAW Local 2865 and the university system on Tuesday discussed benefits related to green transit, according to local president Rafael Jaime. The union has proposed public transit passes, subsidies for the use and purchase of bikes and e-bikes, and other incentives for the use of alternative transportation, Jaime said.

University negotiators said they are still discussing e-bike discounts with their vendors and would "make efforts" to establish transit passes, according to Jaime. The union proposed a compromise in the hope of reaching an agreement, Jaime said.

"The university continues to negotiate with flexibility and an open mind," Ryan King, associate director of media relations, University of California Office of the President, said in a statement.

The university has proposed to the union "enlisting the assistance of a neutral private mediator so that we can achieve a compromise," King said.

Jaime said "at this point, the priority should be round the clock bargaining in good faith as opposed to switching to a mediation process. We remain willing and able to meet with the university on an ongoing basis to reach a resolution."

More than 50 negotiating sessions have been held, many taking place over Zoom, including Tuesday's, "given the geographic diversity of those involved," King said.

About 48,000 workers, including 17,000 student researchers, at UC Riverside, the nine other University of California campuses and Lawrence Berkeley

National Laboratory went on strike Monday, seeking higher salaries and greater annual raises, free public transit passes, improved child care benefits and greater job security.

"The current university proposal would set the standard for graduate academic employee support among public research universities," King said. "Under our proposals, wages for UC academic employees would be among the top of the pay scale among the top public research universities, and more comparable to private universities such as Harvard, MIT, and USC."

The strike is the nation's largest since 2019, the largest at any academic institution, and first by postdoctoral scholars and academic researchers, according to Jaime.

Riverside County Reopens 7 Hiking Areas Due to Improved Conditions

RIVERSIDE - Riverside County reopened several hiking areas Monday due to improved conditions that have decreased the fire threat.

Riverside County Fire Chief Bill Weiser received approval from the Board of Supervisors to reopen seven hiking areas in the county starting Monday.

"I am pleased that we are able to open these beautiful areas of Riverside County for full access, but would like to remind visitors to remain vigilant and mindful when it comes to the threat of wildland fires," Weiser said.

The reopened areas are Eagle Canyon/Tin Mine, Steel Peak, Bautista Canyon, North Mountain, Whitewater Canyon, Ramona Bowl and Simpson Park, fire officials said.

The hiking areas were closed since May 23 because of the increased fire threat posed by low moisture levels and hot weather, but recent rain and milder temperatures have decreased the risk.

Residents can contact the Public Affairs and Community Education Bureau at 951-940-6985 or <https://tinyurl.com/hikingclosures> for closure information.

Corona Man Gets Over 8 Years In $6.6M PPP Fraud Case

LOS ANGELES (CNS) - A Corona man was sentenced Monday to 102 months in federal prison for submitting false loan applications that brought him more than $6.6 million in Paycheck Protection Program and Economic Injury Disaster Loan funds.

Muhammad Atta, 39, was also ordered to pay $6,643,540 in restitution. He pleaded guilty in August in Los Angeles to federal counts of wire fraud and laundering of monetary instruments, according to the U.S.

Attorney's Office.

"It's important that the sentence imposed today sends the message that there are serious consequences for defrauding federal relief programs," U.S. District Judge Percy Anderson said from the bench in downtown Los Angeles.

Atta submitted 11 fraudulent PPP loan applications for seven shell companies. The applications misrepresented the number of employees and the average monthly payroll expenses of Atta's companies, and falsely certified he would use the loan proceeds for permissible business purposes.

Atta also submitted false tax and payroll documentation in support of his applications. In total, Atta received over $6.6 million in loan proceeds even though none of his companies was a legitimate recipient of relief funds at that time. He then laundered loan proceeds to bank accounts in the United States and Pakistan.

Atta's plea agreement

details one PPP loan in which he sought about $1.2 million for a company called Envisioning Future Inc. The loan application falsely represented that Envisioning had 73 employees and falsely certified the company would use the loan proceeds for permissible business purposes, including the payment of payroll and other business-related expenses. The fraudulent application filed on April 10, 2020 was supported by falsified federal tax returns and false payroll data, prosecutors said.

About a month later, Envisioning received about $1.2 million in loan proceeds, and the following day Atta wired most of the money to his mother's bank account. Then in June 2020, Atta wired $1.3 million -- the majority of which came from the Envisioning PPP loan -- to a financial institution in Islamabad, Pakistan. According to the plea agreement, the wire transfer details included a note that the wire was "family support."

Riverside Church Seeks Volunteers to Serve Thousands for Thanksgiving

RIVERSIDE (CNS) - A Riverside church that provides meals to thousands of Riverside County residents on Thanksgiving sent out a call Tuesday for volunteers to help with the distribution effort.

W THIS is a meal for the homeless, senior citizens, families in need and those who will be home alone," according to the Central Community Christian Fellowship. "We need volunteers each year to help serve and deliver the dinners to our community."

This Thanksgiving will mark the 35th year the church has made meal deliveries available as part of its Thanksgiving Day Outreach.

In previous years, more than 4,000 meals have been sent out, largely to Meals-on-Wheels recipients. However, during the coronavirus public health lockdowns of 2020, the church expanded service to many people who were out of work during the holiday period.

Delivery service generally begins the morning of Thanksgiving and concludes by early afternoon.

Volunteers retrieve hot plates from the church kitchen on Arlington Avenue and fan out into Riverside and surrounding communities.

On-site meal service is also planned at the church property, where upwards of 500 people often gather to enjoy Thanksgiving dinners. The only exception was in 2020, when restrictions on public gatherings prevented volunteers from providing dinners inside or outside the house of worship.

Turkeys, along with stuffing, mashed potatoes and other trappings are made in the church kitchen, typically with help from a Riverside-based catering service.

"Everyone is invited to join in sharing Thanksgiving dinners together with our families from Central Community," according to the church.

Anyone interested in lending a hand this year -- or may know of someone who needs a meal delivered -- was asked to contact the church at 951-689-5806.

Morongo Tribe Provides 300,000 Thanksgiving Meals to Non-Profits for those in Need

MORONGO INDIAN RESERVATION - The Morongo Band of Mission Indians provided a record 15,000 free turkeys this year to non-profit groups, churches and charities from across Perris, Hemet, San Jacinto and the Inland Empire.

The turkeys are providing nearly 300,000 holiday meals to families, seniors and veterans in need, as part of the Tribe's 36th Annual Thanksgiving Outreach Program.

Since the program began, Morongo has given away more than 175,000 turkeys, which in turn have provided an estimated 3.5 million holiday meals.

"Morongo launched our Thanksgiving Outreach program more than three decades ago to help those struggling to put food on the table," said Morongo Tribal Chairman Charles Martin. "The last couple of years have presented unprecedented challenges for so many, and we are humbled to be in the position to help those in need."

Tribal members and volunteers gathered at the Morongo Community Center from Nov. 14 - 16 to distribute Thanksgiving turkeys to 116 nonprofit organizations, such as food pantries, churches, homeless shelters, schools and veteran groups from across Southern California.

Groups receiving turkeys hailed from Banning, Beaumont, Riverside, San Bernardino, Moreno Valley, Temecula, Menifee, Hemet, Murrieta, Los Angeles, and other communities. The groups will use the turkeys to provide hot holiday meals to those in need or will distribute the birds in holiday meal gift baskets with additional side dishes to help feed thousands of people who otherwise would not have been able to enjoy a Thanksgiving dinner this year.

"The Coachella Valley Rescue Mission is busier than ever this year, and with the economy the way it is, we've had to double the amount of those we are providing food boxes to," said Darla Burkett, executive director of the Coachella Valley Rescue Mission. "We are so very grateful to the Morongo Band of Missions for their generous support in allowing us to feed hundreds of people in need this holiday season."

Other non-profit groups who received turkeys included the Los Angeles Rescue Mission in Los Angeles, Victory Outreach in Banning,

Morongo Band of Mission Indians

Volunteer Jorge Zamora helps pack some of the 15,000 turkeys donated by the Morongo Band of Mission Indians.

St. Elizabeth of Hungary Food Pantry in Desert Hot Springs and Carol's Kitchen in Beaumont among others.

For nearly 4 decades, thousands of veterans and military families have benefitted from the tribe's Thanksgiving Outreach program with turkeys donated to local chapters of the Veterans of Foreign Wars and other military support groups.

"Morongo's generosity never ceases to surprise our military families, especially during the holiday season," said Todd Sieja, President and CEO of the Western Eagle Foundation in Temecula. "Year after year, they help provide delicious thanksgiving meals for our veterans to enjoy and share with their loved ones."

The Healing & Hope for the Homeless in Los Angeles received 300 turkeys to help feed the homeless this holiday.

"During this very difficult and uncertain time, Morongo's commitment to helping those who are less fortunate is always consistent," said Karen Collins, Volunteer Coordinator of the Healing & Hope for the Homeless. "We are so thankful for the 300 turkeys that Morongo has gifted to Healing & Hope for the Homeless for those in need of a warm and delicious holiday meal."

Pastor Victor Archuleta of Victory Outreach Church in Banning said the 300 turkeys provided by Morongo will help struggling families enjoy a Thanksgiving dinner together.

"Morongo's Thanksgiving Outreach Program has been the gift that keeps on giving to the families in need across the San Geronio Pass," Archuleta said. "The blessing of a warm meal from Morongo provides a light of hope to many who are struggling." To receive turkeys, participating groups submitted applications to the Tribe and were notified over the summer that they had been selected. For organizations interested in receiving turkeys next Thanksgiving, applications for next year are due in Spring 2023.

In the Riverside County Supervisor's District 5 race, the only contest for the county board, Moreno Valley Mayor Yxstian Gutierrez has led one-term incumbent

Quick Pickled Radish

By Connor Forbes

Pickled vegetables add a great acidic crunch to almost anything. Throw them in salads, on sandwiches, on top on meats, in tacos, etc. They are a delightful little extra that you didn't know you needed.

BUT once you start adding them to dishes you won't want to stop. I particularly like pickled radishes in tacos and as well as sandwiches.

Ingredients

- 1 bunch of radish
- 1 cup distilled vinegar
- 4 garlic cloves, minced
- ¼ cup cilantro.
- 1 tsp salt

To Make

Slice radishes thinly and place in a jar. Top with the cilantro. Bring the vinegar, garlic, and salt to a boil. Pour boiling vinegar on top of the cilantro and radishes. Close jar, let cool, and refrigerate. Use immediately or within the next couple of weeks.

"BLACK PANTHER: WAKANDA FOREVER"

BY BOB GARVER

In 2018, "Black Panther" became the biggest hit of the Marvel Cinematic Universe. It even made more at the domestic box office than that year's "Avengers: Infinity War." Since then, King T'challa (Chadwick Boseman) of the African kingdom of Wakanda died at the hand of Thanos, came back in "Avengers: Endgame," and then died permanently of an unspecified illness. This of course mirrors Boseman's real-life death in 2020.

THE opening of "Black Panther: Wakanda Forever" is dedicated to T'challa (and Boseman's) passing and the celebration of his life. Yes, the Marvel logo is Boseman-centric, but it opts for a quiet, reverent tone rather than the call to cheer that was Stan Lee's tribute at the beginning of "Captain Marvel" in 2019. Nothing wrong with either approach, they're just respectful in different ways.

This portion of the film is handled perfectly. The rest of the film is... less perfect.

A year after T'challa's passing, Wakanda is still thriving thanks to the strong leadership of his mother Ramonda (Angela Bassett). A sequence where she makes a stern speech at the United Nations with the help of military leader Okoye (Danai Gurira) is the best post-T'challa scene in the movie and is even garnering Bassett some Oscar talk. There's still some unease because Wakanda no longer has sovereign hero Black Panther around to protect it. Ramonda would like her daughter Princess Shuri (Letitia Wright) to pick up where T'challa left off, but Shuri wants only to bury herself in scientific research so Wakanda can survive without an antiquated superhero.

Danger rears its head in the form of Namor (Tenoch Huerta), ruler of the undersea kingdom of Talokan. Talokan is the only other place on Earth with access to vibranium, the element that allows Wakanda to be so technologically-advanced. Namor orders Ramonda and Shuri to assassinate Riri Williams (Dominique Thorne), a teenage scientist with the ability to expose Talokan's existence to the world. Failure to do so will lead to Talokan declaring war on Wakanda and then on the rest of the world. Namor's plan doesn't make a whole lot of sense, as Talokan doesn't seem to have a terribly strong military once they lose the element of surprise, but for purposes of this movie, Wakanda has to find a way to fend off Namor and the rest of Talokan, with lives of important characters hanging in the balance.

Ramonda and Shuri even have to enlist the help of Nakia (Lupita Nyong'o), the former lover of T'challa, to help with the effort, because she's an expert in languages. The mission doesn't need Nakia nearly as much as the movie needs Oscar-winner Nyong'o. And if you think there's little reason to have her in the movie, wait until you see the flimsy reasoning behind another cameo late in the movie. It pains me to say it, but the forced cameo is where the movie lost me. Or if not there, then definitely a moment in a climactic battle that brings to mind one of the most laughable scenes in a rival superhero franchise.

For all its importance in saying goodbye to Chadwick Boseman, "Black Panther: Wakanda Forever" is a below-average MCU installment. Wakanda really is one of the greatest worlds within the MCU, which makes it all the more glaring that it's in danger from the cramped, primitive-looking Talokan. Also, if Wakanda was really going to defend itself without a Black Panther, the protector's name wouldn't be right there in the title. We know we're getting a new Black Panther, no need to spend so much time playing coy. I'm in no hurry to return to Wakanda after this movie.

Grade: C

"Black Panther: Wakanda Forever" is rated PG-13 for sequences of strong violence, action and some language.

Its running time is 161 minutes.

Ridges of high pressure will drag across the Great Basin in Nevada and Utah midweek, turning on the east wind accelerator, according to the weather service.

A high wind warning is in effect until 7 p.m. Wednesday.

Though no fire weather warnings have been posted, forecasters noted that the offshore winds will raise the potential for any blazes that erupt to become wildfires in some locations due to the ongoing drought.

"Forecast models show relative humidity plummeting into the lower teens Wednesday as dry air from the desert runs downslope and warms (the region)," the NWS stated. "The combination of strong winds and low relative humidity will lead to a period of critical fire weather, but only for a maximum duration of three to five hours. Given the fact that ... we received significant rainfall recently, we will not be issuing any fire weather products."

According to the weather service, temperatures in the Riverside metropolitan area will be seasonable through the week, with highs in the low 70s and lows in the mid 40s.

In the Coachella Valley, the mercury will generally peak in the mid 70s, with lows around 50, while in the Temecula Valley, the daytime temps will hover in the upper 60s, with lows around 40 to the end of the week.

You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property. NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER: The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn whether your sale date has been postponed, and, if applicable, the rescheduled time and date for the sale of this property, you may call 916-939-0772 for information regarding the trustee's sale or visit this internet website <http://www.qualityloan.com>, using the file number assigned to this foreclosure by the Trustee: CA-22-939953-BF. The best way to verify postponement information is to attend the scheduled sale. NOTICE TO TENANT: You may have a right to purchase this property after the trustee auction pursuant to Section 2924m of the California Civil Code. If you are an "eligible tenant buyer," you can purchase the property if you match the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. If you are an "eligible bidder," you may be able to purchase the property if you exceed the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. There are three steps to exercising this right of purchase. First, 48 hours after the date of the trustee sale, you can call 916-939-0772, or visit this internet website <http://www.qualityloan.com>, using the file number assigned to this foreclosure by the Trustee: CA-22-939953-BF to find the date on which the trustee's sale was held, the amount of the last and highest bid, and the address of the trustee. Second, you must send a written notice of intent to place a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 15 days after the trustee's sale. Third, you must submit a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 45 days after the trustee's sale. If you think you may qualify as an "eligible tenant buyer" or "eligible bidder," you should consider contacting an attorney or appropriate real estate professional immediately for advice regarding this potential right to purchase. NOTICE TO PROSPECTIVE OWNER/OCCUPANT: Any prospective owner/occupant as defined in Section 2924m of the California Civil Code who is the last and highest bidder at the trustee's sale shall provide the required affidavit or declaration of eligibility to the auctioneer at the trustee's sale or shall have it delivered to Quality Loan Service Corporation by 5 p.m. on the next business day following the trustee's sale at the address set forth in the below signature block. This shall be the Purchaser's sole and exclusive remedy. The purchaser shall have no further recourse against the Trustor, the Trustee, the Beneficiary, the Beneficiary's Agent, or the Beneficiary's Attorney. The total amount of the unpaid balance of the obligations secured by the property to be sold and reasonable estimated costs, expenses and advances at the time of the initial publication of this Notice of Trustee's Sale is estimated to be $570,572.17 (Estimated). However, prepayment premiums, accrued interest and advances will increase this figure prior to sale. Beneficiary's bid at said sale may include all or part of said amount. In addition to cash, the Trustee will accept a cashier's check drawn on a state or national bank, a check drawn by a state or federal credit union or a check drawn by a state or federal savings and loan association, savings association or savings bank specified in Section 5102 of the California Financial Code and authorized to do business in California, or other such funds as may be acceptable to the Trustee. In the event tender other than cash is accepted, the Trustee may withhold the issuance of the Trustee's Deed Upon Sale until funds become available to the payee or endorsee as a matter of right. The property offered for sale excludes all funds held on account by the property receiver, if applicable. If the Trustee is unable to convey title for any reason, the successful bidder's sole and exclusive remedy shall be the return of monies paid to the Trustee and the successful bidder shall have no further recourse. Notice to Potential Bidders If you are considering bidding on this property lien, you should understand that there are risks involved in bidding at a Trustee auction. You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a Trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same Lender may hold more than one mortgage or Deed of Trust on the property. Notice to Property Owner The sale date shown on this Notice of Sale may be postponed one or more times by the Mortgagee, Beneficiary, Trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about Trustee Sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn whether your sale date has been postponed, and, if applicable, the rescheduled time and date for the sale of this property, you may call Nationwide Posting & Publication at 916.939.0772 for information regarding the Trustee's Sale or visit the Internet Website www.nationwideposting.com for information regarding the sale of this property, using the file number assigned to this case, CA08000467-21-1. Information about postponements that are very short in duration or that occur close in time to the scheduled sale may not immediately be reflected in the telephone information or on the Internet Website. The best way to verify postponement information is to attend the scheduled sale. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property. NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER: The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn whether your sale date has been postponed, and, if applicable, the rescheduled time and date for the sale of this property, you may call (714) 730-2727 or visit this Internet Web site <https://www.lpsasap.com/>, using the file number assigned to this case SLG-299-CCB. Information about postponements that are very short in duration or that occur close in time to the scheduled sale may not immediately be reflected in the telephone information or on the Internet Web site. The best way to verify postponement information is to attend the scheduled sale. For Sales conducted after January 1, 2021 NOTICE TO TENANT: You may have a right to purchase this property after the trustee auction pursuant to Section 2924m of the California Civil Code. If you are an "eligible tenant buyer," you can purchase the property if you match the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. If you are an "eligible bidder", you may be able to purchase the property if you exceed the last and highest bid at the trustee auction. There are three steps to exercising this right of purchase. First, 48 hours after the date of the trustee sale, you can call 888-522-6214 or visit this internet website www.lpsasap.com, using the file number assigned to this case to find the date on which the trustee's sale was held, the amount of the last and highest bid, and the address of the trustee. Second, you must send a written notice of intent to place a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 15 days after the trustee's sale. Third, you must submit a bid; by remitting the funds and affidavit in Section 2924m(c) of the Civil Code; so that the trustee receives it no more than 45 days after the trustee's sale. If you think you may qualify as an "eligible tenant buyer" or "eligible bidder", you should consider contacting an attorney or appropriate real estate professional immediately for advice regarding this potential right to purchase.
