Racing then Rage Reported Cause for Shutting Down 91 Freeway in Corona Sunday Night

CORONA (CNS) - Drivers of a pickup and a sedan may have been racing before colliding on the westbound Riverside (91) Freeway in Corona and they reportedly got into a fight after the crash that tied up traffic over one hour, authorities said Monday.

THE crash between a gray Ram pickup and a silver Toyota sedan was reported at 10:14 p.m. Sunday on the westbound Riverside Freeway west of Main Street, according to the California Highway Patrol's online log.

Witnesses told the CHP the pickup was overturned, that the two vehicles were racing before the crash and that two people were in a physical altercation inside a construction area in the center divider.

There were reports of shots fired on the road and the CHP shut down all lanes of the westbound Riverside Freeway at 11:46 p.m. so that officers could search for evidence of a shooting.

One person was taken to Corona Regional Medical Center and one was taken to Riverside Community Hospital, the CHP said.

Video from the scene showed the pickup with major front-end damage and the sedan with extensive rear-end damage. It showed several officers walking on the freeway searching for evidence.

The road was reopened at about 1 a.m.

Perris Substitute Teacher Suspected of Sex Acts with Student

PERRIS - A Perris high school substitute teacher was arrested today for allegedly engaging in sex acts with a male student.

Rebekah Arte Blackwell Taylor, 22, of Moreno Valley was booked into the Robert Presley Detention Center in Riverside on suspicion of oral copulation of a minor and annoying a child. Taylor is being held in lieu of $10,000 bail.

According to Sgt. Joshua Parker of the Riverside County Sheriff's Department, the agency's Special Victims Unit received information last week pertaining to alleged illicit contact between Taylor and a boy at Orange Vista High School in the 1400 block of East Orange Avenue.

Parker said an investigation was initiated that confirmed the alleged encounters, culminating in an arrest warrant being served at the suspect's residence on Soaring Seagull Lane, where she was taken into custody without incident at about 7:15 a.m. Tuesday.

The circumstances behind the alleged acts, including how long the teacher and student had known one another and where they met, were not disclosed.

Board Backs Goals for Reducing Homelessness Countywide

RIVERSIDE (CNS) - The Board of Supervisors voted unanimously Tuesday to align policies and practices with a set of priorities for reducing homelessness in Riverside County over the next five years.

THE Housing & Workforce Solutions Agency's comprehensive Homeless Action Plan establishes goals aimed at moving people out of chronically homeless conditions and helping them transition to stable living environments, adopting elements of the California Interagency Council's Ending Homelessness Action Plan.

Agency spokesman Greg Rodriguez said the plan also seeks to incorporate components of the California State Association of Counties' AT HOME collaborative, based on pillars of "accountability, transparency, housing outreach, mitigation and economic opportunity."

"Many people with the right assistance can become full members of a working environment," Rodriguez said of the plan and finding job opportunities to make homeless people self-sufficient.

He said one of the plan's top goals is creating 21,000 affordable housing units to "fill gaps" and serve the county's "extremely low income population" at risk of becoming homeless.

Other objectives are expanding the stock of interim, bridge or transitional housing; preserving or expanding rental assistance programs; and relying on a "supportive housing response system in Riverside County to make it possible to end homelessness by reaching functional zero."

Over the next five years, the action plan seeks a 75% reduction in the time people spend on the streets or in shelters, using "geographically distributed" crisis housing beds and other means.

"This is an immense effort based on the entire continuum of care," Housing & Workforce Solutions Director Heidi Marshall told the board.

She said that some previously homeless individuals were consulted in drafting the action plan.

Only one member of the public offered comments on the county's plan -- Roy Bleckert of Moreno Valley.

"The reason we have homelessness is people can't afford homes, and that's because of stupid government policies," he told the board. "You're perpetrating the garbage that (Gov.) Gavin Newsom is trying to shove down our throats. This is not a resource problem. You get the rules and regulations out of the way and get more people employed, and you would not have a crisis."

Despite tens of millions of dollars allocated to homeless programs in recent years, California continues to have the largest homeless population in the country, with almost 200,000 people statewide dispossessed in 2022, according to figures released by the U.S. Department of Housing & Urban Development in December.

Fully one-third of the nation's homeless are in California, where six of the top 10 cities with the greatest number of itinerants are located, HUD's Annual Homelessness Assessment Report said.

Riverside County's 2022 homeless census confirmed 3,316 people were chronically unsheltered, a 15% increase from two years earlier. Results from the 2023 point-in-time survey are slated to be released next week.

Sheriff's Fees for Contract Cities Hiked

NORCO, EASTVALE AND LAKE ELSINORE WILL GET BREAK ON FACILITY FEES

RIVERSIDE (CNS) - The Board of Supervisors Tuesday authorized Riverside County Sheriff Chad Bianco to hike the blanket rate charged to 16 cities and other contract entities for the use of patrol deputies and support services associated with operations.

In a 5-0 vote without comment, the supervisors approved the sheriff's 1.63% increase to the base hourly rate charged for the use of patrol personnel. The augmented rate, which officials said is needed to recoup higher costs incurred by the department, will be retroactive to July 1, 2022.

Under the revised rate schedule, the cost of a sheriff's patrol deputy will rise from $206 per hour to $209.35 per hour.

"Each year, the Sheriff's Department does an analysis of just its patrol operations and determines real costs effectively through its sheer size," according to an agency statement posted to the board's agenda. "The fully supported contract law enforcement rates include the entire systemic costs involving the running of a (law enforcement) department."

Last year's hike was 4.09%, driven in part by greater "pension obligations and salary increases" obtained by the Riverside Sheriffs Association for the several thousand deputies it represents, and the costs of increased pensions and salary hikes for executive-level personnel represented by the Law Enforcement Management Unit.

In 2015, a 7% hike prompted an outcry from elected and non-elected officials from Indian Wells, Lake Elsinore, Moreno Valley, Palm Desert and Temecula, who challenged the justification for such a significant upward adjustment. They protested that law enforcement expenses were draining their budgets and should be capped.

The objections led to a two-year assessment of sheriff's operations conducted by Netherlands-based professional services firm KPMG, at a cost of nearly $40 million. After the company's audit and recommendations, some sheriff's management practices were changed, and adjustments were made to deputies' schedules and assignments at several stations to save money.

However, the KPMG work was criticized by the Riverside County Grand Jury and other sources as excessively expensive with limited results.

Probationer Charged with Attempting to Kill Elsinore Man in Knife Attack

MURRIETA (CNS) - A probationer accused of stabbing a man multiple times during an attack in Lake Elsinore was charged Wednesday with attempted murder and other offenses.

Pablo Bustamante Jr., 38, was arrested in the predawn hours Monday following a Riverside County Sheriff's Department investigation.

Along with attempted murder, Bustamante is charged with sentence-enhancing allegations of using a deadly weapon during the commission of a felony and inflicting great bodily injury.

The defendant, who is being held in lieu of $1 million bail at the Byrd Detention Center, was slated to make his initial court appearance Wednesday at the Southwest Justice Center in Murrieta.

According to sheriff's Corporal Evan Bechtold, at about 11:15 p.m. Sunday, Bustamante and the victim, identified only as a Lake Elsinore man, were involved in an unspecified confrontation in the 31000 block of Riverside Drive, near Lakeshore Drive, during which the defendant allegedly pulled a knife and attacked the other man.

Patrol deputies converged on the location minutes later and discovered the victim "suffering from multiple stab wounds and losing consciousness," Bechtold said.

The man was taken to Inland Valley Medical Center in Wildomar for treatment. His condition Wednesday could not be confirmed.

Deputies obtained a description of the suspect and were directed to a residential area in the 15000 block of Lincoln Street, just over a mile away from where the attack occurred. Bustamante was apprehended roughly three hours later without incident, according to Bechtold.

The motive for the alleged attack was not provided.

Report: Deadly Helicopter Crash in Nuevo Happened 10 Minutes After Takeoff

RIVERSIDE (CNS) - A turbine-driven helicopter that crashed on a Nuevo hillside, killing the pilot and passenger, had departed only 10 minutes earlier, with no distress broadcasts from the aircraft before it went down, according to a report released Tuesday by federal investigators.

THE National Transportation Safety Board's preliminary findings on the March 24 crash of the Bell 407, tail number N14Z, did not provide any clues as to what might have caused the seven-seat chopper to slam into the 2,560-foot hill in the area of Chastity and Pulsar View roads.

The pilot, Mark Clayton Carter, 61, and his passenger, Dennis Lee Foster, 62, both of Murrieta, were killed on impact.

Federal Aviation Administration records show only Carter held a rotorcraft pilot's license, and he had undergone his last aero-medical exam in October. There was no clear indication whether he owned or had leased the helicopter, which is often used in short-haul transportation, utility operations and law enforcement.

According to the NTSB, the two men departed French Valley Airport at 12:05 p.m. and were northeast-bound, en route to Big Bear Airport, "as part of a weekend skiing trip."

The helicopter traveled 18 miles, then plowed into the hill.

"If an iPhone or Apple Watch detects a severe car crash, and the user is unresponsive, the iPhone will attempt to contact emergency services with its location," according to the NTSB report. "A family member received a crash detection notification from the pilot's iPhone shortly after the accident, and crash detection notification was forwarded to the Riverside County Sheriff's Department."

A sheriff's STAR-9 helicopter crew was the first to reach the crash site about 12:40 p.m., alerting Cal Fire personnel of what had happened and how to get to the downed chopper, which was completely destroyed.

"The fragmented helicopter wreckage came to rest about 100 feet downslope in an area of rocky, hilly terrain on the north facing side of the hill," the NTSB said.

Paramedics hiked to the location and pronounced the two men dead at the scene. The cause of the crash remains under investigation and will be addressed in the NTSB's final report, which may not be completed and available for another two years.

CSUSB Palm Desert Campus Class Interrupted for Emotional Presentation of Award

PALM DESERT - Cal State San Bernardino's president and faculty members interrupted an oral communication class at the Palm Desert campus Tuesday to present the lecturer with the university's 2022-23 Outstanding Lecturer Award in front of her students.

"Professor Lacey Kendall is a passionate, engaged and dedicated lecturer who has excelled in the area of teaching and supporting student development," according to a statement from the awards committee. "When evaluating Professor Kendall's track record as a teacher, (the committee was) incredibly impressed that she has achieved and sustained consistently high levels of performance in that role."

Kendall, a communication studies lecturer, was presented the award Tuesday through a surprise declaration for her exceptional instruction, capacity to engage her students and for because of their positive feedback, according to a statement from the CSUSB Palm Desert Campus.

CSUSB president Tomas D. Morales and more than 45 colleagues, faculty members, staff and administrators barged into her class in the Mary Stuart Rogers Gateway Building to make the announcement, college officials said. Though she was shocked at first, she quickly became emotional listening to her colleagues' positive comments about her.

"Lacey is everything a faculty member ought to be," said provost and vice president for academic affairs at CSUSB Rafik Mohamed. "She is an excellent instructor, she has real-world experience, but beyond that, she is caring and as we saw today, she has had a profound impact on the lives of our students, so I couldn't be happier."

The class interruption is part of university tradition so students can see their professor being honored, officials said. In addition to the award, Kendall will receive a $1,000 Faculty Professional Development Grant.

RS County Supervisors Affirm Appointment of New Probation Chief

RIVERSIDE (CNS) - The Board of Supervisors today affirmed the appointment of a longtime probation officer to head the Riverside County Department of Probation, a decision he called "the highest honor" he'd ever received.

"HE deserves this position," Supervisor Manuel Perez said of the appointment of Christopher Wright. "He cares. He's compassionate, and he's been in this line of work for 25 years."

Wright takes over from former Chief Probation

Riverside County Probation

Officer Ron Miller, who retired last month after just over three and a half years in the position and several decades in law enforcement.

"This is the highest honor and achievement I've been blessed with in my life," Wright told the board. "I promise to lead, together with my staff, as we strive for excellence. We'll provide quality services where there's a need. There will be challenges ahead, but we can have the impact we've been striving to achieve for years."

Wright, who worked directly under Miller, will be the 12th person to head the Department of Probation since it was established, and he noted that he is the county's first Black probation chief.

"No road is too hard or too far," he said. "Set your goals high."

The incoming chief said he has formulated a strategic plan for guiding the agency's operations going forward, one that includes expanding payrolls.

"We're hiring," he said. "Anybody need a job out there? If you truly want to work for one of the best departments in the state, come work for us."

Wright and other applicants were vetted by a selection committee that answered to the county's Juvenile Justice & Delinquency Prevention Commission. Perez and Supervisor Chuck Washington were members of the committee, along with two Superior Court judges and several executive officers from county government.

The committee submitted Wright's name for nomination, and county Presiding Judge Judith Clark approved the recommendation.

The board formally signed off on Clark's appointment, and authorized a $244,339 annual salary for the new chief.

Supervisors OK Continuing Shuttle Program for Stranded Inmates

RIVERSIDE (CNS) - The Board of Supervisors Tuesday approved a $500,000 contract with a taxi service to sustain a subsidized ride program for inmates that ensures they have a means of returning home when they're released from any Riverside County detention facility.

"We want to let our communities know that we're supportive of this effort," Supervisor Chuck Washington said ahead of the 5-0 vote in favor of continuation of the Riverside Inmate Destination Endeavor, or RIDE, program.

It was implemented in June 2014 as a pilot project conceived by then-Supervisor Jeff Stone. Since then, the board has approved funding for RIDE each fiscal year.

Until last spring, the program was only available at the Byrd Detention Center in French Valley, bordering Murrieta. However, the board voted to expand RIDE to all five of the county's detention facilities, beginning in the current fiscal year.

With Tuesday's vote, Sheriff Chad Bianco received the board's authorization for a 12-month contract between the county and Finish Line Transport taxi service at a cost of $500,000, covering fiscal year 2023-24. The agreement includes the option to annually renew at the same cost until the end of 2026-27.

The revenue will be drawn from the county General Fund.

"The county jail facilities are all within walking distance to several housing communities and business centers," according to a statement posted to the board's agenda. "The RIDE program provides the sheriff the ability to pay for the cost of transporting released inmates out of the local community and to their residences, resulting in prevention of loitering and criminal activity in the community."

According to sheriff's documents, some of the 33,000 inmates released from the county's lockups in the previous fiscal year were unable to secure their own rides home.

RIDE will provide detainees released in 2023-24 with vouchers -- each valued at roughly $60 -- to cover the costs of transit via Finish Line

Transport.

At the time RIDE was initiated, some residents and business owners in French Valley and Murrieta complained that inmates released at all hours of the night from the Byrd Detention Center were loitering near their properties, sometimes behaving aggressively and committing crimes, mostly vandalism and theft.

Inmates are generally set free with no bond requirement when the county's detention facilities exceed capacity. A 30-year-old federal court order mandates that the sheriff have a bed available for each detainee, or jailed offenders must be released to make room for incoming ones. Sheriff's correctional personnel make a determination as to who gets released on a case-by-case basis.

Bianco said last month that the county's correctional system is operating at maximum capacity.

ARE YOU THERE GOD? IT'S ME, MARGARET.

By Bob Garver

It's hard to believe that the new big-screen adaptation of the classic Judy Blume novel "Are You There God? It's Me, Margaret." made only $6.8 million at the domestic box office this past weekend. The theater where I saw the movie was more crowded than usual, and the audience clearly liked it to the point where there was applause at the end.

I know that the film's female-centric subject matter can be off-putting to male audiences, but this movie didn't make a fifth of what "The Super Mario Bros. Movie" made in its fifth weekend. The blockbuster filled with eye candy was always going to steamroll this relatively quiet effort, but I would like to see this movie do better because it is the superior film.

Abby Ryder Fortson stars (and nuts to any advertising that says that Rachel McAdams is the star) as Margaret Simon, a sixth-grader in the 1970's. Her world is turned upside-down when her parents (McAdams and Benny Safdie) announce that the family is moving from New York City to the New Jersey suburbs. Fortunately, it's easy for Margaret to make friends with attention-crazy neighbor Nancy (Elle Graham) and her clique that also includes Gretchen (Katherine Kupferer) and Janie (Amari Price). Unfortunately, that's about the only thing that's easy for Margaret, because sixth grade is the year when things really start to get dramatic for preteens.

Margaret does her best to navigate this new world of social and biological challenges. She thinks she can cruise through it with the help of her friends, and they help to a degree, but since they're all equally confused, they're only so much help to one another. She's also thrown a curve in the form of spiritual challenges. She recognizes a need to pray to a higher power, but is unsure about what role religion should play in her life. Her parents have a gripe with organized religion due to some disturbing family history, but she considers Judaism with her grandmother (Kathy Bates), Protestantism with Nancy, and even Catholicism after she sees her classmate Laura (Isol Young) go to confession. By the way, this movie (though I suppose the book did it first) could have gone the easy route of turning the imposing, rapidly-developing Laura into a bully, but it's subversive and intelligent enough to force Margaret to confront the realization that she and her friends are the ones doing the bullying.

The movie moves along at a pretty good clip, getting in a lot of milestones both on the calendar and in life. In fact, sometimes it moves a little too fast, like it's skipping some things. I feel like there's a scene missing where there's a falling-out with the group of friends, as evidenced by a scene where Margaret and Janie have fun at a dance while Nancy can only watch from afar with an inattentive Gretchen. Also, I could tell I was supposed to like the girls' nervous teacher (Echo Kellum), and Margaret goes out of her way to compliment him at the end of the school year, but based on what I'd seen of the character, it felt unearned. Maybe a scene was cut, or maybe something didn't make it from page to screen, but the guy never struck me as a particularly good teacher.

I know I'm skipping over many story points crucial to "Are You There God? It's Me, Margaret." including the well-known, potentially-uncomfortable women's health elements. To be clear, these elements are prominently in the movie and usually handled with more sensitivity than I could possibly do justice. But the movie is so much more than that. It's thoughtful and touching and very, very funny, especially when Kathy Bates is involved. It contains tremendous performances, especially by Abby Ryder Fortson and Rachel McAdams. Most importantly, it's the best thing playing in theaters right now and it could use a boost in ticket sales.

Grade: B

"Are You There God? It's Me, Margaret" is rated PG-13 for thematic material involving sexual education and some suggestive material. Its running time is 106 minutes.

CONNOR COOKS

MAC AND Cheese WITH PEAS

By Connor Forbes

My kids love mac and cheese. Probably the same for most kids. Ooey, gooey, cheesy goodness. What's not to like. So, we had a beach day a couple weeks ago and I made mac and cheese when we got home. It took about as long as it took for the pasta to boil to make the roux and we ate it shortly after that. I mixed in a bunch of mozzarella cheese, which made it extra stringy, but is not normal, and may not be for everyone. So, I'll just stick to cheddar in this recipe. Likewise, I also used bow tie pasta but will write this with macaroni. I added in peas for extra protein, and they are a nice little pop in the mouth. But feel free to leave them out if that is not your jam. So let's make mac and cheese!

Ingredients

- 2 tbsp butter
- 1/3 cup all-purpose flour
- 2 cups water
- 2 cups shredded cheddar cheese
- 16 oz macaroni pasta
- 8 ounce frozen peas (optional)

To Make

Pull peas out of the freezer and set aside on the countertop. In a pasta pot, boil water and cook your pasta. While the pasta is cooking, heat the water in a small sauce pan until hot. It doesn't need to be boiling but can if you forget about it. In a large pan, melt the butter on medium low. Add in the flour and mix. This will make a thick paste. Add in the hot water slowly while constantly mixing. This will be your roux. Add the cheese into the roux and continue mixing until evenly melted. This is your cheese sauce. Put the peas in the strainer you are going to use to separate your pasta from the water. Strain your boiling pasta water directly over the peas. The pasta can also go into the strainer. Mix your pasta and peas into the cheese sauce and mix thoroughly. Plate and EAT!

Sheriffs Fees

and formed a stand-alone police department.

Cities receive the benefit of helicopter patrols, robbery and homicide investigations, SWAT unit and bomb squad responses without having to foot the bills individually. Contracting entities are further spared the cost of lawsuits stemming from the actions of sheriff's personnel, according to the agency.

In addition to the hike in patrol deputy rates, the board signed off on the sheriff's plan for the 16 municipalities under contract with the county to pay higher or lower sums for the sheriff's use of facilities dedicated to servicing the communities.

Officials said that the heftier bills generally stem from county Department of Facilities Management costs to maintain stations, including lights, waterworks, landscaping and custodial operations. The sheriff initially carries the expenses, then passes them on to the contracting parties, each of which is invoiced in proportion to how much it consumes.

The largest percentage increase in facilities costs will be borne by Indian Wells, which is facing a $99,447 bill, compared to $78,834 the previous fiscal year -- a roughly 26% jump.

Perris will bear the highest facilities fee in dollars and cents: $578,385. That's a 3.8% increase from the previous fiscal year, when the city shelled out $557,019.

Other cities -- Canyon Lake, Eastvale, Jurupa Valley, Lake Elsinore, La Quinta, Norco and Wildomar -- are slated to net savings in facilities charges for the current fiscal year, according to sheriff's documents.

Chandra Conviction

without parole for causing the deaths of Daniel Hawkins, Jacob Ivascu and Drake Ruiz -- all 16 -- on Jan. 19, 2020. Ivascu was from Riverside; the other two were from Corona.

"Tough verdict," defense attorney David Wohl said. "There is a lot of passion behind this case and sometimes it plays into the verdict."

A 13-year-old boy, 14-year-old boy and 18-year-old man, who was at the wheel of the car that was struck, suffered moderate to major injuries in the crash and were treated at Inland Valley Medical Center in Wildomar. They have since recovered to varying degrees.

According to California Highway Patrol investigators and prosecutors, the boys were having a Sunday night sleepover at one of their homes and decided to try a "doorbell ditch" prank in the neighborhood, on Modjeska Summit Road in the Temescal Valley, just south of Corona.

Shortly after 10 p.m., five of them piled into a Toyota Prius parked on Modjeska Summit, while another went to Chandra's residence and rang the bell several times, investigators said. The youth then ran to the Prius, which raced away from the location.

According to the Riverside County District Attorney's Office, Chandra "chased after the Prius in his 2019 Infinity Q50."

CHP Officer Juan Quintero said the defendant bore down on the Prius at high speed along Temescal Canyon Road, approaching Squaw Mountain Road. The lawman alleged that the defendant rammed the Prius, causing it to spin out of control and slam into a tree on the side of the road.

Family members told reporters that the boys were fleeing out of fear and were trying to avoid a confrontation with Chandra. There was no prior dispute between the teens and the defendant, according to prosecutors.

Witnesses followed Chandra back to his residence and alerted CHP officers, who arrested him roughly four hours after the collision.

Chandra testified that he thought the person at his door was a sex offender who had come to assault him, his wife and twin 16-year-old daughters, according to the Press-Enterprise. He said he drove after the teens hoping to express his anger, but not harm them.

Chandra further testified that he only collided with the car because it suddenly braked.

However, jury foreman Terry Sherrill said the panel was put off by Chandra's demeanor during his testimony.

"He absolutely did not put us in a remorseful mindset," Sherrill said. "He didn't seem to care about the well-being of the kids at all. ... Just his demeanor throughout the trial, and he didn't show any form of remorse or emotion until he was talking about his money."

NOTICE TO POTENTIAL BIDDERS: If you are considering bidding on this property lien, you should understand that there are risks involved in bidding at a trustee auction. You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property. NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER: The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn whether your sale date has been postponed, and, if applicable, the rescheduled time and date for the sale of this property, you may call 800-280-2832 for information regarding the trustee's sale or visit this internet website <http://www.qualityloan.com>, using the file number assigned to this foreclosure by the Trustee: CA-22-948809-AB. Information about postponements that are very short in duration or that occur close in time to the scheduled sale may not immediately be reflected in the telephone information or on the internet website. The best way to verify postponement information is to attend the scheduled sale. NOTICE TO TENANT: You may have a right to purchase this property after the trustee auction pursuant to Section 2924m of the California Civil Code. If you are an "eligible tenant buyer," you can purchase the property if you match the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. If you are an "eligible bidder," you may be able to purchase the property if you exceed the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. There are three steps to exercising this right of purchase. First, 48 hours after the date of the trustee sale, you can call 800-280-2832, or visit this internet website <http://www.qualityloan.com>, using the file number assigned to this foreclosure by the Trustee: CA-22-948809-AB to find the date on which the trustee's sale was held, the amount of the last and highest bid, and the address of the trustee. Second, you must send a written notice of intent to place a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 15 days after the trustee's sale. Third, you must submit a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 45 days after the trustee's sale. If you think you may qualify as an "eligible tenant buyer" or "eligible bidder," you should consider contacting an attorney or appropriate real estate professional immediately for advice regarding this potential right to purchase. NOTICE TO PROSPECTIVE OWNER/OCCUPANT: Any prospective owner/occupant as defined in Section 2924m of the California Civil Code who is the last and highest bidder at the trustee's sale shall provide the required affidavit or declaration of eligibility to the auctioneer at the trustee's sale or shall have it delivered to QUALITY LOAN SERVICE CORPORATION by 5 p.m. on the next business day following the trustee's sale at the address set forth in the below signature block. The undersigned Trustee disclaims any liability for any incorrectness of the property address or other common designation, if any, shown herein. If no street address or other common designation is shown, directions to the location of the property may be obtained by sending a written request to the beneficiary within 10 days of the date of first publication of this Notice of Sale. If the sale is set aside for any reason, including if the Trustee is unable to convey title, the Purchaser at the sale shall be entitled only to a return of the monies paid to the Trustee. This shall be the Purchaser's sole and exclusive remedy. The purchaser shall have no further recourse against the Trustor, the Trustee, the Beneficiary, the Beneficiary's Agent, or the Beneficiary's Attorney. If you have previously been discharged through bankruptcy, you may have been released of personal liability for this loan in which case this letter is intended to exercise the note holders rights against the real property only. All right, title, and interest conveyed to and now held by the trustee in the hereinafter described property under and pursuant to a Deed of Trust described as:

More fully described in said Deed of Trust.

Street Address or other common designation of real property: 13491 HILDEGARDE STREET, MORENO VALLEY, CA 92553 A.P.N.: 263-180-045

The undersigned Trustee disclaims any liability for any incorrectness of the street address or other common designation, if any, shown above.

The sale will be made, but without covenant or warranty, expressed or implied, regarding title, possession, or encumbrances, to pay the remaining principal sum of the note(s) secured by the Deed of Trust with interest thereon, as provided in said note(s), advances, under the terms of said Deed of Trust, fees, charges and expenses of the Trustee and of the trusts created by said Deed of Trust. The total amount of the unpaid balance of the obligation secured by the property to be sold and reasonable estimated costs, expenses and advances at the time of the initial publication of the Notice of Sale is: $ 75,332.56.

Note: Because the Beneficiary reserves the right to bid less than the total debt owed, it is possible that at the time of the sale the opening bid may be less than the total debt.

If the Trustee is unable to convey title for any reason, the successful bidder's sole and exclusive remedy shall be the return of monies paid to the Trustee, and the successful bidder shall have no further recourse.

The beneficiary of the Deed of Trust has executed and delivered to the undersigned a written request to commence foreclosure, and the undersigned caused a Notice of Default and Election to Sell to be recorded in the county where the real property is located.

NOTICE OF TRUSTEE'S SALE

NOTICE TO POTENTIAL BIDDERS: If you are considering bidding on this property lien, you should understand that there are risks involved in bidding at a trustee auction. You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on this property.

NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER: The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn whether your sale date has been postponed, and, if applicable, the rescheduled time and date for the sale of this property, you may call (866)-960-8299 or visit this Internet Web site <https://www.altisource.com/loginpage.aspx> using the file number assigned to this case 2022-01588-

NOTICE OF TRUSTEE'S SALE

NOTICE TO TENANT: You may have a right to purchase this property after the trustee auction, if conducted after January 1, 2021, pursuant to Section 2924m of the California Civil Code. If you are an "eligible tenant buyer," you can purchase the property if you match the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. If you are an "eligible bidder," you may be able to purchase the property if you exceed the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. There are three steps to exercising this right of purchase. First, 48 hours after the date of the trustee sale, you can call (877)-518-5700, or visit this internet website <https://www.realtybid.com/>, using the file number assigned to this case 2022-01588-CA to find the date on which the trustee's sale was held, the amount of the last and highest bid, and the address of the trustee. Second, you must send a written notice of intent to place a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 15 days after the trustee's sale. Third, you must submit a bid, by remitting the funds and affidavit described in Section 2924m(c) of the Civil Code, so that the trustee receives it no more than 45 days after the trustee's sale. If you think you may qualify as an "eligible tenant buyer" or "eligible bidder," you should consider contacting an attorney or appropriate real estate professional immediately for advice regarding this potential right to purchase.

In addition to cash, the Trustee will accept a cashier's check drawn on a state or national bank, a check drawn by a state or federal credit union or a check drawn by a state or federal savings and loan association, savings association or savings bank specified in Section 5102 of the California Financial Code and authorized to do business in California, or other such funds as may be acceptable to the Trustee. In the event tender other than cash is accepted, the Trustee may withhold the issuance of the Trustee's Deed Upon Sale until funds become available to the payee or endorsee as a matter of right. The property offered for sale excludes all funds held on account by the property receiver, if applicable. If the Trustee is unable to convey title for any reason, the successful bidder's sole and exclusive remedy shall be the return of monies paid to the Trustee and the successful bidder shall have no further recourse. Notice to Potential Bidders If you are considering bidding on this property lien, you should understand that there are risks involved in bidding at a Trustee auction. You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a Trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same Lender may hold more than one mortgage or Deed of Trust on the property. Notice to Property Owner The sale date shown on this Notice of Sale may be postponed one or more times by the Mortgagee, Beneficiary, Trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about Trustee Sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn whether your sale date has been postponed, and, if applicable, the rescheduled time and date for the sale of this property, you may call In Source Logic at 702-659-7766 for information regarding the Trustee's Sale or visit the Internet Website address listed below for information regarding the sale of this property, using the file number assigned to this case, CA08001661-22-1. Information about postponements that are very short in duration or that occur close in time to the scheduled sale may not immediately be reflected in the telephone information or on the Internet Website. The best way to verify postponement information is to attend the scheduled sale. Notice to Tenant NOTICE TO TENANT FOR FORECLOSURES AFTER JANUARY 1, 2021 You may have a right to purchase this property after the trustee auction pursuant to Section 2924m of the California Civil Code. If you are an "eligible tenant buyer," you can purchase the property if you match the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction.
