The California Hospital Association filed a lawsuit against Anthem Blue Cross, alleging slow insurance approvals result in delays for patients and unnecessary hospital costs.

AN 'IMPOSSIBLE SITUATION': WHY CALIFORNIA HOSPITALS ARE SUING A MAJOR HEALTH INSURER

BY KRISTEN HWANG, CalMatters

Medical insurance delays can keep someone in a hospital bed much longer than they need to be waiting for after-care services like home health care. Those delays can also block hospitals from using beds needed for new patients.

California hospitals have long complained about those delays, and in a new lawsuit, they're suing one of the state's largest health insurers to force it to speed its approvals of secondary treatment.

The California Hospital Association, which represents more than 400 hospitals, filed the complaint against Anthem Blue Cross in Los Angeles County Superior Court Tuesday. The complaint alleges Anthem is violating the state's long-standing patient protection laws, which require insurers to provide health care in a timely manner, and engaging in unfair business practices. It also claims that Anthem refuses to pay for the excess hospital days caused by its delays.

"Anthem's misconduct creates an impossible situation for patients and hospitals," the lawsuit states.

Although the lawsuit targets Anthem, hospital association President Carmela Coyle said delayed discharges are an industry-wide problem.

"This is a long time coming," Coyle said. "California has some of the strongest laws in the nation governing insurance protection of patients, and these laws are violated every day."

A spokesperson for Anthem said the company did not have an immediate response and would be investigating the allegations.

MAGNITUDE 4.1 QUAKE SHAKES INLAND REGION

CORONA (CNS) - An earthquake centered roughly five miles southwest of Corona Wednesday rattled the Inland Empire, but there were no reports of damage.

According to the U.S. Geological Survey, the 4.1-magnitude temblor occurred at 1:49 p.m. at a subterranean depth of nearly a mile. The quake was originally reported as a 4.5 magnitude, then reduced to a 4.3 and ultimately to a 4.1.

The quake was felt in Riverside and began with a jolt, followed by moderate shaking that lasted about five seconds. It was felt as far away as West Los Angeles and the Long Beach area, too.

"The city of Corona immediately responded to the seismic event by surveying the affected area to ensure the safety and well-being of our residents and infrastructure," Corona Fire Department spokesman Daniel Yonan said.

"We are pleased to report that there has been no reported damage within the city at this time. However, our teams will continue to diligently evaluate and assess the situation to ensure ongoing safety."

Yonan said the event is a "reminder to our community that earthquakes can occur unexpectedly and anywhere," and he encouraged residents to be prepared by having "emergency kits" on hand in case of utility outages, as well as going through "drop, cover and hold on" drills to be ready for a major seismic occurrence.

Several smaller quakes happened in the same area on Tuesday, including a pair of 2.8-magnitude quakes between roughly 7:30 and 7:40 p.m., and a magnitude 2.5 shaker that struck at about 2 p.m.

Outbreak of E. Coli Linked to Organic Walnuts

CORONA - Combined Sources - At least a dozen people in California and Washington have been sickened with E. coli food poisoning linked to organic walnuts sold in bulk in 19 states, U.S. health officials said Tuesday. The nuts were sold in natural food and co-op stores such as Whole Foods and Market of Choice.

SEVEN people have been hospitalized and two have developed a dangerous kidney disease known as hemolytic uremic syndrome, officials with the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention said.

Gibson Farms Inc. of Hollister, California, has recalled potentially affected walnuts with expiration dates between May 21, 2025 and June 7, 2025, the Food and Drug Administration said. Some stores may have repackaged bulk walnut pieces into clamshells or bags. The FDA has a list of stores where the walnuts were sold.

The Gibson Farms walnut pieces were distributed at stores in cities including Riverside and Rancho Mirage, according to the U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention.

The nuts are potentially contaminated with dangerous E. coli bacteria that can cause severe stomach cramps, diarrhea, including bloody diarrhea and vomiting. Symptoms start three to four days after consuming the food. Most people recover within five to seven days.

Consumers who bought organic walnuts from bulk containers should check to see if they're part of the recall. Recalled nuts should not be sold or served, the CDC said. Wash items and surfaces that may have come in contact with the nuts using hot soapy water or a dishwasher. Contact a health care provider about any symptoms.

A list of affected stores is available at fda.gov/media/178182/download?attachment.

Future Riverside County `Wellness Village' Receives Final Board Approval

RIVERSIDE (CNS) - The Board of Supervisors Tuesday approved a $580 million project to establish an all-in-one medical campus providing a "range of services" for Riverside County residents of all ages.

IN a 5-0 vote, the board formally signed off on the Riverside University Health System's "Wellness Village," a 19-acre facility slated for construction near the intersection of Harvill and Placentia avenues in Mead Valley.

A ceremonial groundbreaking at the site is tentatively set for the afternoon of June 1. Construction is expected to be completed in 2026, RUHS officials said.

"The RUHS Wellness Village represents a major shift in how we provide healthcare and will serve as a model for the state," said Supervisor Kevin Jeffries, whose First District encompasses the future campus. "By centralizing and enhancing access to health care, such as pediatric behavioral health services, we're ensuring that families no longer need to travel out of county for essential care."

Services set to be provided at the campus include general medical care, dental care, substance abuse therapy, pharmaceuticals, and possibly job training and educational programs later on, according to officials.

"This project is unlike anything else that's been done," RUHS Behavioral Health Director Dr. Matthew Chang said. "It will be a place where individuals of all ages can access a range of services in an environment designed to foster healing, community interaction and overall well-being. In terms of behavioral health treatment approaches, we are breaking new ground."

Pro-Palestine Encampment Established at Center of UC Riverside

RIVERSIDE (CNS) - Students at UC Riverside established an encampment in the middle of campus to protest Israel's actions in Gaza, joining nearly a dozen universities across California and numerous nationwide to demand the school end "all investments and endowments" benefiting the Jewish state.

"We are joining the student movement, the student Intifada," according to an unnamed spokeswoman for Students for Justice in Palestine, UCR chapter. "We are not leaving this encampment day and night until the university complies and meets with us to discuss our demands."

The encampment was set up Monday, with several dozen tents placed on the green adjacent to the campus Bell Tower, recognized as the center of UCR.

Campus administrators did not immediately respond to requests for comment.

The specific number of students participating in the peaceful campus demonstration could not be confirmed. On Wednesday, a group of students staged a midday walkout from classes and held a rally at the tower, chanting "Israel is a racist state!" and "Free, free, free Palestine!"

There was no obvious law enforcement presence, and no campus buildings appeared to be obstructed.

The "demands" issued by the SJP UCR chapter included "a full transparent disclosure of all investments and endowments in weapons manufactures and the Israeli genocidal machine," as well as a "full divestment from weapons manufacturers and any corporations that either fund or profit off the genocidal machine."

The SJP-UCR representative noted there is no "standing university in Gaza" due to the unabated bombing campaign since early October conducted by the Israeli Defense Forces using U.S.-supplied drones and fighter-bombers.

The chapter spokeswoman alleged American "universities are complicit in the genocide," and the protests at UCR and other campuses are intended to "condemn war crimes and crimes against humanity."

Messages taped to the large UCR sign underneath the Bell Tower included "Stop the U.S.-funded Genocide" "End the Occupation Now" and "Ceasefire Now!"

Estimates on the number of campuses where anti-war movements have surfaced over the last month vary, but according to the nonprofit National Students for Justice in Palestine, "solidarity encampments" numbered just over 70 as of May 1.

According to the Palestinian Ministry of Health and the International Committee of Red Cross-affiliated Palestine Red Crescent Society, nearly 35,000 people have been killed in Gaza -- over 14,500 of them children -- since the deadly Oct. 7 Hamas incursion into Israel, culminating in the IDF's invasion of the Gaza Strip.

The number of injuries is in excess of 77,000, according to published reports.

Israel's official casualty rate for the duration of hostilities is 8,730, of which just over 1,000 have been fatalities.

Along with universities, hospitals, refugee camps and residential complexes in Gaza have been targeted, displacing hundreds of thousands of people, according to reports from the region.

Human Rights Watch has alleged Israel "is using starvation of civilians as a method of warfare in the Gaza Strip," and according to the International Committee of the Red Cross, the humanitarian crisis caused by the bombardments on the Strip's infrastructure has resulted in almost 500,000 "displaced persons" requiring shelter and other assistance.

The Committee to Protect Journalists said Wednesday that of the 97 reporters killed in hostilities since early October, 92 have been Palestinian. Others have been assaulted, injured and arrested. The CPJ said the current "war ... has led to the deadliest period for journalists since we began gathering data in 1992."

Aid workers have also been killed. The United Nations has estimated the number at 220, including seven World Central Kitchen volunteers whose vehicle took a direct hit on April 1 during an IDF drone strike on a convoy.

County Reminds Residents About Unclaimed Property Tax Refunds

RIVERSIDE (CNS) - Hundreds of Riverside County business owners and residents are owed property tax refunds, and officials Tuesday encouraged members of the public to find out whether they're on the list of prospective recipients.

According to Treasurer-Tax Collector Matthew Jennings, roughly $480,000 in refunds from tax year 2019 and further back is waiting to be claimed.

Amounts per recipient range from a few dollars to thousands of dollars.

The deadline to file a refund claim is Aug. 1. The Board of Supervisors will vote soon after that date on whether to transfer unclaimed money into the General Fund, or extend the claims deadline.

"Our office is working diligently to contact the potential claimants, in hopes that they will recoup these funds that are due back to them," Jennings said. "We will continue to exhaust all methods of communication to distribute these unclaimed funds to the rightful owner."

A complete list of individuals and businesses eligible for refunds can be found at https://apps.countytreasurer.org/unclaimedrefund/.

Information about how to file a claim is available via the portal. Interested parties may also call 951-955-3900 for assistance.

In previous years, the board postponed action on transfers to give prospective recipients additional time to file a claim. In 2017, officials began circulating notices in April about the availability of the unclaimed funds.

Under state law, the county is only obligated to hold unclaimed money for four years before it becomes government property.

According to Jennings, most of the refunds stem from changes in the property tax roll that occurred after a payment had been mailed, resulting in savings to the taxpayer.

When the Office of the Treasurer-Tax Collector sends a refund check and it's returned, it's placed in a holding account.

Cinco De Mayo Celebrants Warned Not to Imbibe and Drive

MORENO VALLEY (CNS) - Riverside County sheriff's deputies and officers from other law enforcement agencies throughout the region on Sunday will step up patrols to catch Cinco de Mayo celebrants who risk drinking, or drugging, and driving.

In Moreno Valley and Calimesa, anti-DUI enforcement deployments will be conducted all day Sunday, mostly involving saturation patrols.

"Don't put yourself and others on the road at risk by driving impaired," according to a statement released by the sheriff's Moreno Valley station. "If you're planning to celebrate with a drink or two, leave your keys at home and designate a sober driver."

In cities throughout the county, police officers will be closely monitoring traffic activity, enforcing a "zero tolerance" policy toward impaired driving, according to public safety officials.

They emphasized that party-goers have the option of calling a cab, using public transit or hailing a private ride service like Lyft or Uber.

A misdemeanor DUI conviction in California can result in fines up to $10,000, jail time and revocation of a driver's license.

Public Hearing Set on Proposed Hikes to Environmental Health Fees

RIVERSIDE (CNS) - The Board of Supervisors Tuesday set a June 4 public hearing to consider a series of proposed increases to fees for permits issued by the Riverside County Department of Environmental Health, whose director pointed out the hikes being sought are not based solely on inflationary pressures.

"We're not using only the consumer price index model," agency Director Jeff Johnson told the board. "We're looking at the costs and assignments on our end ... (which are) variable across different aspects of what we regulate."

Johnson emphasized the department did not seek any fee adjustments for the current fiscal year and is now seeking to offset expenses that have grown beyond what the agency can absorb and stay within budget.

"We go back and analyze what we do. We ask if we can do some things better, create efficiencies," he said. "That's why I didn't come here last year and ask for a CPI adjustment. We've had to absorb costs internally, but we're a lean machine."

Supervisor Kevin Jeffries applauded the efficiency goal, saying he has never liked going along with other board members in applying a "rubber stamp and not ask what's driving increases."

"Anything that leads us to a process where we can see where the revenue challenges and the shortfalls are ... is a benefit," Jeffries said.

The permit and inspection fees the department is seeking to increase cover a broad regulatory scheme, from food facilities to farm stands, and swimming pools to septic tanks.

Among the higher fees slated for an increase is the permit for a community temporary event. The greater the number of vendors, the bigger the cost for a Department of Environmental Health review. A permit for an event featuring 26 to 30 vendors would go from $3,644 to $3,863, while an event with 56 to 60 vendors would rise from $7,202 to $7,634.

A catering permit would go from $527 to $563, while a produce stand permit would only rise $9 to $398.

The cost of a permit to sell unpackaged edibles from a mobile food facility would increase from $589 to $624, and to host a certified farmers market, a $543 fee would be required for a permit, compared to $522 currently.

The cost of a permit for installation of an underground storage tank would jump from $1,328 to $1,380, and the fee for closing an underground system would go from $944 to $962.

Among the smallest increases was for food handler certification, which is a $27 fee. It would bump up to $28 under the proposed amendments.

A few fees would be left unchanged, including the $140 inspection fee for a mobile home park and the 10-cent per page cost of clerical records supplied by the department.

California Will Buy Cheaper Naloxone to Stop Fentanyl Deaths

BY LYNN LA and Ana B. Ibarra, CalMatters

California can buy more overdose-reversing medication at a lower price under a deal Gov. Gavin Newsom's office announced Monday with a pharmaceutical company, potentially giving law enforcement, schools and others more resources to address the state's fentanyl crisis.

Narcan nasal s pray containers available at a rally at the First Street U.S. Courthouse in Los Angeles on April 22, 2024.

UNDER a government-run pharmaceutical program called CalRx, California will purchase naloxone from New Jersey-based Amneal Pharmaceuticals at a discounted price of $24 for a two-pack of nasal sprays.

This means California can buy about 1.5 times more naloxone for the same price. That's 3.2 million twin-packs instead of the 2 million twin-packs purchased at the previous price of $41, Newsom's office announced.

The state purchases the medication and distributes it to schools, law enforcement agencies, county health departments, clinics and community organizations. Residents can obtain naloxone at no cost through one of these public groups. Otherwise, the market price for individuals at a pharmacy is about $50.

Just last week, Amneal Pharmaceuticals announced that it had received approval from the U.S. Food and Drug Administration to sell its nasal spray naloxone over the counter. Amneal's nasal spray is a generic version of Narcan.

California's agreement is good for two years and can be extended, according to state health officials. The state expects to order its first units of naloxone from Amneal next month.

Since 2018, the Naloxone Distribution Project has given out 4.1 million kits of the medication. The state estimates that this has resulted in at least 260,000 overdose reversals.

In 2022, the latest year for which data is available, 7,385 people died from opioid overdoses; the vast majority of those were related to fentanyl.

Naloxone is perhaps the most common tool in aiding the opioid and fentanyl epidemic. It is available in the form of a nasal spray, but also in injectable form. It's largely effective and safe, and California has been pushing for its broader availability in common public spaces, including schools, restaurants and to ride-share drivers.

"We hope this will become as ubiquitous and as available as other key aspects of first aid kits," Landsberg said.

The state's contract with Amneal is the second one announced under the state's CalRx initiative, through which the Newsom administration is attempting to make life-saving drugs available below market rate. Newsom announced last year the state would make its own brand of insulin through a contract with Civica Rx. On Monday, Dr. Mark Ghaly, the state's Health and Human Services secretary, said there is no date yet on when California's insulin will be available.

Arraignment Delayed a Month for Man Accused in Fentanyl Fatality

RIVERSIDE (CNS) - At the request of his attorney, arraignment was postponed Monday for a man accused of supplying a deadly dose of fentanyl to a 40-year-old Norco resident.

Johnnie Curtis Stevens, 40, of Norco, was arrested Wednesday following a months-long Riverside County Sheriff's Department investigation into the death last year of Jason Schmuch.

Stevens made his initial court appearance Friday and returned to the Riverside Hall of Justice Monday morning, when his newly appointed public defender requested a delay in proceedings for reasons unspecified in court minutes. Superior Court Judge Gary Polk granted the motion, resetting the arraignment to June 10.

Stevens is being held in lieu of $1 million bail at the Byrd Detention Center in Murrieta.

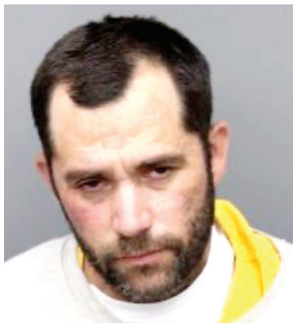

According to sheriff's Sgt. Sean Liebrand, on the morning of Nov. 19, 2023, patrol deputies were called to the intersection of Roundup Road and Stagecoach Drive to investigate reports of a comatose man.

Schmuch was pronounced dead at the scene, Liebrand said.

"Deputies located evidence indicative of a fentanyl overdose," the sergeant said.

He said the sheriff's Overdose Death Investigations & Narcotics Unit was assigned to the case after it was confirmed "Schmuch died as a result of fentanyl poisoning."

An initial search warrant was served at Stevens' property in the 5000 block of Trail Street less than a day after the victim's death. Liebrand said deputies seized "fentanyl, methamphetamine and (drug) paraphernalia" at the location.

Riverside Sheriff's Dept

Investigators additionally discovered the defendant's daughter, whose identity wasn't released, "had access to the narcotics," Liebrand alleged.

Stevens was initially booked into jail only for child endangerment, and he posted bail soon afterward.

The ODIN Unit's investigation continued, culminating in sufficient evidence to seek a murder charge against the defendant, which prosecutors filed Friday.

Stevens has no documented prior felony convictions in Riverside County. His connection to the victim was not disclosed.

Since February 2021, more than two dozen individuals countywide have been charged with murder in connection with fentanyl poisonings.

In November, prosecutors closed the books on the county's first fentanyl murder case to go before a jury, culminating in the conviction of 34- year-old Vicente David Romero, who was sentenced to 15 years to life in prison for the 2020 death of a Temecula woman.

Preliminary data released by the Department of Public Health earlier this year showed there were 388 confirmed fentanyl-related fatalities countywide in 2023, a 23% decline from 2022, when there were 503.

Fentanyl is manufactured in overseas labs, according to the U.S. Drug Enforcement Administration, which says the drug is smuggled across the U.S.- Mexico border by cartels.

Fentanyl is 80-100 times more potent than morphine and can be mixed into any number of street narcotics and prescription drugs, without a user knowing what he or she is consuming. Ingestion of only two milligrams can be fatal.

Today in History

On May 3, 1948, the Supreme Court, in Shelley v. Kraemer, ruled that covenants prohibiting the sale of real estate to Blacks or members of other racial groups were legally unenforceable. A Black couple, J.D. and Ethel Shelley had purchased a duplex in St. Louis in 1945, but a neighbor, 10 blocks away, Luis Kraemer filed suit, claiming the neighborhood had a decades old covenant preventing "people of the Negro or Mongolian Race" from occupying the property. A protracted legal battle eventually came before the U.S. Supreme Court, which ruled it was a violation of the equal protection clause of the Fourteenth Amendment.

Asian American and Pacific Islander Month Features Revelry and Racial Justice

By TERRY TANG Associated Press

It has been almost 50 years since the U.S. government established that Asian Americans, Native Hawaiians and Pacific Islanders and their accomplishments should be recognized annually across the nation.

What started as just one week in May has evolved over the decades into a monthlong tribute of events in cities big and small. The nature of celebrations also evolved. Asian American and Pacific Islander or Asian American, Native Hawaiian and Pacific Islander Heritage Month is not just about showcasing festive fare like food and fashion, but hard subjects like grief and social justice. The rise of anti-Asian hate during the pandemic only heightened that effort.

"I think the visibility and the level that the increased participation of organizations in Asian Pacific Heritage Month activities is also an indication of the increasing voice of Asian Americans and Pacific Islanders in civic life more generally," said Karen Umemoto, director of the UCLA Asian American Studies Center. "And also an indication of the spaces that we've come to collectively enter to be able to create those."

Indeed, Asian American and Pacific Islander Heritage Month celebrations are not relegated just to ethnic enclaves or culturally-specific venues. Across the U.S. this year, events are planned at public libraries, parks and museums either highlighting a specific Asian culture or a myriad of them.

Women Business Owners Lead with Passion and Optimism for Success

Passion, collaboration and community are keys to running a successful business. That's according to a recent survey of women business leaders as part of PNC's bi-annual Economic Outlook Survey.

PASSION and personal satisfaction for their business or industry is a top factor women business leaders cited for starting and staying in business, with 43% of respondents choosing that over financial success (35%) – the next most common factor. This passion was one key differentiator between women and men business leaders, with only 28% of men reporting personal satisfaction as a primary driver of staying in business.

"For many women business owners, starting and running a business is born out of a personal interest or an opportunity to make a difference in the community," said Shana Peterson-Sheptak, head of Business Banking at PNC. "That's not at the expense of profitability, but it shows the power of being passionate or satisfied with what you do."

POSITIVE OUTLOOK

Respondents noted more than just passion for their businesses, though; they also reported optimism about the next six months, both for the economy and the success of their ventures. Women leaders were more likely than men to expect increases in demand (51% to 49%), sales (51% to 49%), prices of their goods and services (49% to 40%), and profits (52% to 43%) in the coming months. They also were more likely to expect their own compensation and retirement savings to increase – a significant change since PNC's Fall 2022 survey when women leaders were less likely than men to expect increases in those two metrics.

While both women and men leaders were highly optimistic about their near-term prospects for their business, women were significantly more likely to express confidence in the national and local economies than men, 64% to 51% and 72% to 60% respectively. Of those who expressed greater optimism for their business prospects than the national economy as a whole, nearly 80% of women leaders attributed their optimism to confidence in their own abilities.

"Better than expected economic performance in the first part of 2024 is creating optimism for many business leaders as a whole," Peterson-Sheptak said. "But women are especially confident that both their businesses will be successful in the coming months and their abilities as leaders will help make them so."

PROVIDING SUPPORT

There are significant differences between men and women in terms of what they feel they need to succeed and how they prefer to receive support, according to the latest survey results. While peers in the field are the most popular form of support for both women and men business leaders (64% to 69%, respectively), women indicate they are more likely to consider support from community, friends and family vital to their business success than men (62% to 41%).

That support extends to banking relationships. PNC survey feedback has shown that women financial decision makers seek out relationships that extend beyond banking products and services to include financial education and community connections.

PNC cultivates relationships with women financial decision makers in many ways, including through the local cross line of business market teams led by PNC's more than 50 regional presidents coast to coast. Central to this year-round engagement is the company's network of more than 5,000 PNC-certified Women's Business Advocates who share a passion for helping women financial decision makers achieve their financial goals.

"Women entrepreneurs are leading with passion for their business, confidence, and optimism for the future," Peterson-Sheptak said. "We need to make sure we have the resources and people to support their success." (StatePoint)

3 Tips to Help Entrepreneurs Stay on Track

May is National Small Business Month, an annual opportunity to support the hard work of small business owners. The backbone of the nation's economy, small businesses employ 45.9% of the entire U.S. workforce and make up 99.9% of all U.S. businesses, according to the U.S. Small Business Administration.

Unfortunately, some small businesses don't have much in the way of resources, and often struggle to keep their doors open and their cash reserves in the black. Sometimes though, the difference between success and failure is capital, marketing and support. A reliable provider of essential small business services for more than 40 years, The UPS Store can help enable entrepreneurs to actualize their big ideas into success.

It's also the nation's largest franchise system of retail shipping, postal, print and business service centers, meaning that many local store operators are small business owners themselves. In honor of National Small Business Month, the brand is offering entrepreneurs these three tips:

1. Be top of mind: Maintain a dialogue with your community and customers. Regularly refresh your social media channels with new content, maintain an e-newsletter, and of course, don't neglect traditional promotion. Save time by visiting a one-stop shop that can help you design, print and mail your marketing materials.

"CHALLENGERS"

By Bob Garver

Since "Challengers" begins practically at the end of its story, I think I'll begin this review by talking about the movie's ending. It ends, as we see in early scenes and is pretty predictable anyway, with feuding tennis stars Art (Mike Faist) and Patrick (Josh O'Connor) playing against each other in the finals of a tournament, with Art's wife Tashi (Zendaya) watching from the stands. While ultimately one player will have to win and one will have to lose, the real winners are fans of great tennis. As with the match, "Challengers" doesn't concern itself with things like results and fate, it just wants to give you a thrill in getting there.

THE 2019 match between Art and Patrick is a framing device that we see throughout the film, but the story is mostly told through flashbacks, not all necessarily told in order. We go as far back as 2006 when Art and Patrick were doubles champions and best friends. They found themselves both smitten with up-and-comer Tashi, and they invited her back to their shared hotel room. A minor conflict arose when the two couldn't work out who between them would get some alone time with Tashi. They figured that she'd give an indication of who she'd prefer, but Tashi… didn't pick a side. Maybe it's just me reading too much into things, but I think the film's advertising has implied that more happens in the ensuing encounter. It's just a makeout scene with Tashi promising her phone number to the winner of an upcoming match between the two.

Patrick wins the match and Tashi's phone number, and he soon turns pro with Tashi as his girlfriend. Tashi and Art both attend Stanford with plans to turn pro after college, but also have some additional skills if tennis doesn't work out. A jealous Art engineers a fight between Patrick and Tashi, and although he didn't intend it to go quite so far, he's the only one there to comfort Tashi when she suffers a career-ending injury on the court.

Years later, Art has become an international superstar with Tashi as his wife and coach (though their marriage is hanging by a thread), while Patrick's career and life have deteriorated so badly that he's living out of his car. Apparently too much time away from Tashi will do that to a man. Art and Patrick both have to win this small-time tournament, Art to gain momentum going into the U.S. Open, Patrick to resurrect his fledgling career. Of course, they're really battling over Tashi all over again, as well as trying to one-up each other.

I mentioned this movie wanting to give its viewers a thrill on par with the intense final tennis match. After the early stages culminating in the scene in the hotel room, the movie pairs off Art, Patrick, and Tashi in combinations of two for the rest of the movie. The three banter, argue, and manipulate one another in a series of scenes whose snappiness is worthy of the comparison to a well-contested match. It's not exactly a nail-biting intensity, but the three keep up with each other in a complimentary fashion.

Where "Challengers" fell apart for me (aside from my inability to understand tennis scoring, so I kept thinking the climactic match was over when it wasn't, which affected the movie's momentum) was the utter un-likeability of the three main characters. Yes, they have good chemistry, but that's just another way of saying that these miserable people all deserve one another. It's one thing to cultivate conflicting opinions about who to root for because it makes for a lively debate. But did the movie have to make me wish that all three characters could lose somehow? I read an interview with Mike Faist where he described the characters' dynamic as "everyone's right and everyone's wrong." Ironically he's only right about the "everyone's wrong" part.

Grade: C

"Challengers" is rated R for language throughout, some sexual content and graphic nudity. Its running time is 131 minutes.

SALSA chicken

By Connor Forbes

One of my go-to dishes recently has been Salsa Chicken. It is as it sounds. Chicken, cooked in salsa. I use a mild salsa because my kiddos have yet to develop my affinity for super spicy things. But you can use any heat level you'd like. For me, the spicier the better.

BUT that's me. I use my homemade restaurant style salsa, but you can use a jarred salsa if that is easier. Find my salsa recipe on www.zapinin.com/food and search salsa.

INGREDIENTS

- 2 lbs chicken
- 8 oz salsa
- 1 tbsp Cooking oil
- Salt and pepper

TO MAKE

Tenderize chicken meat. If using boneless meat, I like to brine my chicken overnight in a salt water solution and then pound out with a tenderizer.

Heat a large sauté pan over medium high heat. Add cooking oil. Once oil is shimmering add chicken. Salt and pepper to taste on the chicken. After about 4-5 minutes and a good sear has developed flip chicken. Salt and pepper to taste again. Turn down heat to medium low. Add salsa and cover. Simmer for 10-15 minutes.

Serve chicken sliced over rice with roasted vegetables or pull the chicken and make a yummy taco.

Pair of Giant Pandas Set to Travel From China to San Diego Zoo Under Conservation Partnership

SAN DIEGO (AP) — A pair of giant pandas will soon make the journey from China to the U.S., where they will be cared for at the San Diego Zoo as part of an ongoing conservation partnership between the two nations, officials said Monday.

The San Diego Zoo Wildlife Alliance said its caretakers recently visited China to meet the giant pandas, Yun Chuan and Xin Bao, ahead of their planned trip to Southern California. An exact date for the handoff hasn't been set.

Yun Chuan, a mild-mannered male who's nearly 5 years old, has "deep connections" to California, the wildlife alliance said. His mother, Zhen Zhen, was born at the San Diego Zoo in 2007 to parents Bai Yun and Gao Gao.

Xin Bao is a nearly 4-year-old female described as "a gentle and witty introvert with a sweet round face and big ears."

"Our conservation partners in China shared photographs and personality traits of Yun Chuan and Xin Bao, but meeting them in person was so special," said Dr. Megan Owen, the alliance's vice president of conservation science. "It's inspiring as people from around the world come together to conserve, protect, and care for these special bears, and we can't wait to welcome them to San Diego."

The San Diego Zoo Wildlife Alliance has a nearly 30-year partnership with leading conservation institutions in China focused on protecting and recovering giant pandas and the bamboo forests they depend on.

Hospital Suit

Anthem is the largest health insurer in the state, excluding Kaiser Permanente which contracts almost exclusively with its own hospitals. Anthem represents approximately 6 million Californians, nearly twice as many as the next biggest insurer.

Every day, 4,500 Californians spend unnecessary time in hospital beds waiting for health insurers to approve their discharge to a secondary facility, a recent report from the California Hospital Association says. That results in 1 million days of needless hospital care annually, the report said.

Coyle said the association has raised the issue with the Department of Managed Health Care, which oversees most health insurers.

In a statement, department spokesperson Kevin Durwara said the agency has been meeting with the hospital association to address hospitals' "concerns and challenges" with insurance delays since 2021. The meetings resulted in a letter issued to insurers in Fresno County, where hospital capacity was particularly limited, instructing them to make it easier for hospitals to discharge patients.

State law does not specify how quickly insurers must approve hospital discharges to post-acute care and that complaints about delays are addressed on a case-by-base basis, the statement said. State law does however define how quickly patients need to be able to see a doctor for appointments.

Anthem met the access standards for urgent and non-urgent appointments 66% of the time in 2022, according to the most recent state data.

How insurance delays hold back patients

In general, health insurers are required by law to arrange for and authorize post-hospitalization care for patients in a timely manner. For example, a stroke patient may no longer need to be hospitalized but may need to be sent to a skilled nursing facility to continue recovering. Hospitals are not allowed to discharge patients who need additional services without authorization from insurers.

Patients who no longer need to be hospitalized spend an average of 14 extra days in the hospital as a result of insurance delays, according to a recent point-in-time survey from the hospital association. Those who need to be transferred to a mental health facility are stuck for even longer, spending 27 unnecessary days in the hospital on average.

Medi-Cal patients fare the worst, accounting for 46% of all unwarranted hospital days, according to the survey.

"This is basically a daily occurrence," said Vicki White, chief nursing officer at Henry Mayo Newhall Hospital in Santa Clarita.

Across the state, the hospital association estimates delays cost hospitals an estimated $3.25 billion in unneeded hospitalization each year and contributes to overcrowded conditions in hospitals and emergency rooms.

Last winter during the seasonal respiratory virus surge, White said her emergency department had between 20-30 people waiting for a bed daily, in part, because discharge delays prevented the hospital from freeing up bed space.

"We are blocking 4,500 beds a day for people who need care," Coyle said. "That is a serious problem."

California doctors see long waits

The average number of days patients spend in hospitals increased by 9% in 2022 compared to 2019, partially because of discharge delays, according to a report from the California Health Care Foundation.

Dr. Sean Mairano, chief medical officer at Enloe Health in Chico, said in his experience insurance denials and delays have gotten worse over time. Frequently insurers will take days to respond to a request from a physician or won't respond at all.

For example, the lawsuit describes a patient with "catatonic schizophrenia" that needed to be admitted to a full-time psychiatric treatment center. The lawsuit alleges that Anthem's delays in finding an appropriate facility for the patient to be discharged to resulted in eight extra days of hospitalization.

"In extreme cases, people will be here for weeks or months on end awaiting decisions from insurance companies," Mairano said.

What results is patients not getting the speech or physical therapy or other services they need to fully recover. Sometimes, patients get so frustrated they leave the hospital against medical advice and end up back in the emergency room days later, Mairano said.

"From the clinician's standpoint it's obviously frustrating (but) it's really the patients who are stuck in the middle. It's not their fault. They're just trying to get well," Mairano said.

NOTICE TO POTENTIAL BIDDERS: If you are considering bidding on this property lien, you should understand that there are risks involved in bidding at a trustee auction. You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn whether your sale date has been postponed, and, if applicable, the rescheduled time and date for the sale of this property, you may call 800-280-2832 for information regarding the trustee's sale or visit this internet website http://www.qualityloan.com, using the file number assigned to this foreclosure by the Trustee: CA-23-971678-CL. The best way to verify postponement information is to attend the scheduled sale. NOTICE TO TENANT: You may have a right to purchase this property after the trustee auction pursuant to Section 2924m of the California Civil Code. If you are an "eligible tenant buyer," you can purchase the property if you match the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. If you are an "eligible bidder," you may be able to purchase the property if you exceed the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. There are three steps to exercising this right of purchase. First, 48 hours after the date of the trustee sale, you can call 800-280-2832, or visit this internet website http://www.qualityloan.com, using the file number assigned to this foreclosure by the Trustee: CA-23-971678-CL to find the date on which the trustee's sale was held, the amount of the last and highest bid, and the address of the trustee. Second, you must send a written notice of intent to place a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 15 days after the trustee's sale. Third, you must submit a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 45 days after the trustee's sale. If you think you may qualify as an "eligible tenant buyer" or "eligible bidder," you should consider contacting an attorney or appropriate real estate professional immediately for advice regarding this potential right to purchase. NOTICE OF PETITION TO ADMINISTER ESTATE OF:
JOHN RALDON WILES
CASE NO. PRRI2400957
To all heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, contingent creditors, and persons who may otherwise be interested in the WILL or estate, or both of JOHN RALDON WILES.
A PETITION FOR PROBATE has been filed by JAMES T. WILES in the Superior Court of California, County of RIVERSIDE.
THE PETITION FOR PROBATE requests that JAMES T. WILES be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent.
THE PETITION requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.)
The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority.
A HEARING on the petition will be held in this court as follows: 05/20/24 at 8:30AM in Dept. 12 located at 4050 MAIN STREET, RIVERSIDE, CA 92501
IF YOU OBJECT to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney.
IF YOU ARE A CREDITOR or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code. Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law.
YOU MAY EXAMINE the file kept by the court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk.

NOTICE TO POTENTIAL BIDDERS: If you are considering bidding on this property lien, you should understand that there are risks involved in bidding at a trustee auction. You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property. NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER: The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn whether your sale date has been postponed, and, if applicable, the rescheduled time and date for the sale of this property, you may call 800-280-2832 or visit this internet website www.ndscorp.com/sales, using the file number assigned to this case 19-20495-SPCA. Information about postponements that are very short in duration or that occur close in time to the scheduled sale may not immediately be reflected in the telephone information or on the internet website. The best way to verify postponement information is to attend the scheduled sale. NOTICE TO TENANT*: You may have a right to purchase this property after the trustee auction pursuant to Section 2924m of the California Civil Code. If you are a "representative of all eligible tenant buyers" you may be able to purchase the property if you match the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. If you are an "eligible bidder," you may be able to purchase the property if you exceed the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. There are three steps to exercising this right of purchase. First, 48 hours after the date of the trustee sale, you can call 888-264-4010, or visit this internet website www.ndscorp.com, using the file number assigned to this case 19-20495-SPCA to find the date on which the trustee's sale was held, the amount of the last and highest bid, and the address of the trustee. Second, you must send a written notice of intent to place a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 15 days after the trustee's sale. Third, you must submit a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 45 days after the trustee's sale. If you think you may qualify as a "representative of all eligible tenant buyers" or "eligible bidder," you should consider contacting an attorney or appropriate real estate professional immediately for advice regarding this potential right to purchase. *Pursuant to Section 2924m of the California Civil Code, the potential rights described herein shall apply only to public auctions taking place on or after January 1, 2021, through December 31, 2025, unless later extended. A PETITION FOR PROBATE has been filed by Michael Robert Dickey in the Superior Court of California, County of Riverside.
THE PETITION FOR PROBATE requests that Michael Robert Dickey be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent.
THE PETITION requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority.

IF YOU OBJECT to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney.
IF YOU ARE A CREDITOR or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code. Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law.
YOU MAY EXAMINE the file kept by the court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. Prospective Bidders must visit the City's Bids and Requests for Proposals Vendor Portal at https://www.planetbids.com/portal/portal.cfm?CompanyID=39497 and register as a new vendor in PlanetBids in order to download Contract Documents, including Instructions to Bidders, plans and specifications, and to receive addenda and notifications when issued. The successful bidder will be required to furnish the City with a Performance Bond equal to 100% of the successful bid, and a Payment (Labor and Materials) Bond equal to 100% of the successful bid, prior to execution of the Contract. All bonds are to be secured from a surety that meets all of the State of California bonding requirements, as defined in Code of Civil Procedure Section 995.120, and is admitted by the State of California.

Pursuant to Public Contract Code Section 22300, the successful bidder may substitute certain securities for funds withheld by City to ensure performance under the Contract.
The Work is subject to the payment of not less than prevailing wages pursuant to Chapter 1 (beginning at Section 1720 et seq.) of Part 7 of Division 2 of the California Labor Code, as well as Title 8, Section 16000 et seq. of the California Code of Regulations ("Prevailing Wage Laws"). The Director of the Department of Industrial Relations ("DIR") has determined the general prevailing rate of per diem wages in the locality in which this work is to be performed for each craft or type of worker needed to execute the Contract which will be awarded to the successful bidder, copies of which are on file and will be made available to any interested party upon request at Owners office or online at http://www.dir.ca.gov/dlsr. A copy of these rates shall be posted by the successful bidder at the Project site.

Pursuant to SB 854, which amended the Prevailing Wage Laws, this Contract is subject to compliance monitoring and enforcement by the DIR. Beginning March 1, 2015, with very limited exceptions no contractor or subcontractor may be listed on a bid proposal for this Contract unless registered with the DIR pursuant to Labor Code section 1725.5. Beginning April 1, 2015, no contractor or subcontractor may be awarded this Contract unless registered with the DIR pursuant to Labor Code section 1725.5. The DIR registration number for each contractor and subcontractor must be identified on the bid proposal - failure to identify this number could result in the bid being rejected as nonresponsive. It is each bidder's responsibility to ensure that they have fully complied with SB 854. The City will report all necessary contracts to the DIR as required by the Prevailing Wage Laws.

The successful bidder and their subcontractor(s) shall comply with all applicable Prevailing Wage Laws, which include, but are not limited to the payment of not less than the required prevailing rates to all workers employed by them in the execution of the Contract, the employment of apprentices, the hours of labor, the payment of overtime, and the debarment of contractors and subcontractors. The successful bidder and all subcontractor(s) under him shall also be responsible for any and all violations and fines imposed on them pursuant to the Prevailing Wage Laws.

Before the Contract is awarded, the successful bidder shall be a licensed contractor pursuant to the Business and Professions Code and shall be licensed in the following appropriate classification(s) of contractor's license(s), for the work bid upon, and must maintain the license throughout the duration of the Contract: valid Class 'A' General Engineering Contractor.
Funding for this Project is expected to be provided in full or in part pursuant to State of California Clean California Local Grant Project (State) Restricted Grant Agreement No. CCL-5104-050, AMS ADV ID. 0822000149, entered into between the City and the State of California Department of Transportation on or about July 27, 2022 ("Grant Agreement"). The successful Bidder and all subcontractors and subconsultants shall comply with all applicable federal and state laws, rules, and regulations, including but not limited to the Grant Agreement funding requirements and the Caltrans Local Assistance Procedures Manual (LAPM). The funding requirements are included in Appendix G FUNDING SOURCE REQUIREMENTS (GRANT AGREEMENT) of the Bid and Contract Documents.

The successful bidder must fully comply with all applicable laws, rules and regulations in furnishing or using equipment and/or providing services, including, but not limited to, emissions limits and permitting requirements imposed by the South Coast Air Quality Management District (SCAQMD) and/or California Air Resources Board (CARB). Although the SCAQMD and CARB limits and requirements are broader, the successful bidder shall specifically be aware of their application to "portable equipment", which definition is considered by SCAQMD and CARB to include any item of equipment with a fuelpowered engine. The successful bidder will be required to indemnify City against any fines or penalties imposed by SCAQMD, CARB, or any other governmental or regulatory agency for violations of applicable laws, rules and/or regulations by the successful bidder, its subcontractors, or others for whom the successful bidder is responsible under its indemnity obligations.

CARB implemented amendments to the InUse OffRoad DieselFueled Fleets Regulations ("Regulation") which are effective on January 1, 2024 and apply broadly to all selfpropelled off road diesel vehicles 25 horsepower or greater and other forms of equipment used in California. A copy of the Regulation is available at:
https://ww2.arb.ca.gov/sites/default/files/barcu/regact/2022/offroaddiesel/appa-1.pdf. Bidders are required to comply with all CARB and Regulation requirements, including, without limitation, all applicable sections of the Regulation, as codified in Title 13 of the California Code of Regulations section 2449 et seq. throughout the duration of the Project. Bidders must provide, with their Bid, copies of Bidder's and all listed subcontractors' most recent, valid Certificate of Reported Compliance ("CRC") issued by CARB. Failure to provide valid CRCs as required herein may render the Bid nonresponsive.

Award of Contract: The City shall award the Contract for the Project to the lowest responsive, responsible bidder as determined from the lowest total for the summation of the base bid Schedule. The City reserves the right to reject any or all bids or to waive any irregularities or informalities in any bids or in the bidding process.

THE PETITION FOR PROBATE requests that Michele Laipple be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent.
THE PETITION requests the decedent's will and codicils, if any, be admitted to probate. The will and any codicils are available for examination in the file kept by the court.

IF YOU OBJECT to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney.

IF YOU ARE A CREDITOR or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code. Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law.

YOU MAY EXAMINE the file kept by the court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250.
